

It is blatant anti-consumer practice to disallow number portability. All of the line based telephone systems require it, and there are no technical hurdles whatsoever to perform number portability. Requiring the Cellular companies to release phone numbers will only improve our phone service. Stop the roadblocks now, and allow number portability immediately. Thank You.